Personal Profile: Mike Potts

Name	Mike Potts
Role in RAF Tri	Lapsed 'Triangles' Editor
Qualifications	No tri-related qualifications yet. Got a bag full of engineering stuff, though.
Experience (Sporting or otherwise!)	Doing triathlon for about 5 years. Mainly sprint and olympic distance. Just done Ironman Frankfurt. I'm a typical, no-natural-talent-middle-of-the-pack-type-bloke. I have no grand aspirations and I do triathlon because I enjoy it. That was a bit boring, wasn't it?
About me...	Married with 2 cats and an attitude problem (wife made me write that). Keen photographer, climber/mountaineer, outdoor-type-stuff person. I very much enjoy swearing but I'm not allowed to on the website so I tend to use lots of double-entendre and vague and obscure sexual references that only John Crewe understands.
Favourite Sporting Moment	Finishing Ironman Frankfurt...finishing any race, in fact. And any race with Steve Warner in it will always be good for a laugh (Steve – where are you?).
Future Plans	Coaching course, more olympic distance races
Advice/ Quote/ Comment	Read the Drunken Bakers (Viz) and anything by 'Modern Toss', for no other reason than they are quite funny. Oh, right – I didn't know you meant triathlon-related things...
Location	Ramstein, Germany
Occupation	NATO – Guardian of the Pipe and Slippers
